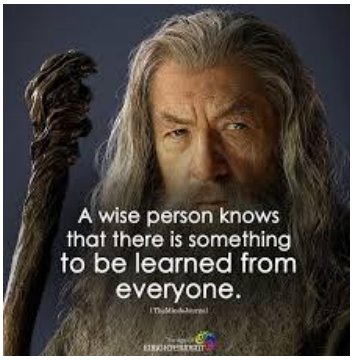
FR BRIAN'S PRAYER & REFLECTION



Wisdom

In our second reading from James, Wisdom is defined as coming from above and contains peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity and the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace. These qualities are qualities we ought to be striving for. Our end goal is to be with Jesus, now, in the future, and at the end. We therefore need to continue to cultivate a culture of Wisdom. To feed wisdom we need to continue to up the ante with prayer, and good works, thus seeking a closer encounter with God. A person of Wisdom would try to form relationships with likeminded people to grow in faith. ALPHA and our communities of Sacred Heart Parish, St Joseph's Parish and Nga Pekanga and our schools do provide that opportunity to grow your faith. There is strength in numbers, most people need another person to help them negotiate the world and to grow with Jesus. Come and join us you are always welcome, and we would love to nurture your faith. God Bless, Fr Brian Carmine

Litany of humility this prayer is unique because it focuses not just on asking for things for us but also on praying for the ability to rejoice in the blessing's others receive. It challenges us to grow in love and humility, aligning our hearts with God's will. The litany helps us to let go of selfishness and embrace a life of deeper service and joy in God's plan.

Jesus, meek and humble of heart, hear me.
From the desire of being esteemed, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the desire of being loved, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the desire of being extolled, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the desire of being honoured, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the desire of being praised, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the desire of being preferred to others, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the desire of being consulted, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the desire of being approved, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the fear of being humiliated, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the fear of being despised, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the fear of suffering rebukes, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the fear of being calumniated, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the fear of being forgotten, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the fear of being ridiculed, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the fear of being wronged, … deliver me, O Jesus.
From the fear of being suspected, … deliver me, O Jesus.
That others may be loved more than I, … Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That others may be esteemed more than I, … Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase, and I may decrease, … Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That others may be chosen, and I set aside, … Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
That others may be praised, and I go unnoticed, … Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

Mass Readings for the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading – Wisdom 2:12, 17-20: The wicked plot to test the righteous man with insults and torture, challenging his faith and patience, and plan to condemn him to a disgraceful death to see if God will protect him.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 54: O God, save and defend me. Hear my prayer. The proud and ruthless seek my life. You are my helper and support. I will praise your name, O LORD.

Second Reading – James 3:16-4:3: Jealousy and selfishness cause disorder and evil. Wisdom from above is pure and peaceable. Wars come from inner desires. You lack because you do not ask or ask with wrong motives.

Gospel – Mark 9:30-37: Jesus taught his disciples about his death and resurrection. In Capernaum, he addressed their argument about greatness, teaching that true greatness comes from being last and serving all, using a child as an example.

Liturgy of the Word

1. First Reading

What Happens: A reading from the Old Testament (or Acts of the Apostles during Easter) is proclaimed. The lector approaches the ambo (lectern), announces the reading, and proclaims it while the congregation listens.

Why We Do It: The First Reading connects us to the history of salvation and God's relationship with His people. It often reflects themes that will be echoed in the Gospel.

Reference: (GIRM), 57-59,

2. Responsorial Psalm

What Happens: A psalm is sung or recited by the congregation in response to the First Reading. The cantor or choir sings the verses of the psalm, and the congregation responds with the refrain.

Why We Do It: The Psalms are prayers that express a range of human emotions and responses to God. This helps the congregation to reflect on the reading and join in communal prayer.

Reference: (GIRM), 61,

3. Second Reading

What Happens: A reading from the New Testament letters (Epistles) is proclaimed. The lector approaches the ambo, announces the reading, and proclaims it while the congregation listens.

Why We Do It: The Second Reading provides insights into the early Christian communities and their teachings. It often offers moral and doctrinal instruction relevant to our lives today.

Reference: (GIRM), 57-59,

DIVINE RENOVATION

2 years ago, a few parishioners and I went to Taupo to Open HOUSE and came back on fire for our parish communities. Much of what we have accomplished with you our parishioners over the two years came from the energy we received at Taupo and prayer. We felt the Lord calling us to go out and to evangelize. You have been great in supporting Jesus and our small team, and we encourage you to continue to seek Jesus and explore some of the many initiatives that are available to us all. Open house is coming to New Plymouth on 22 and 23 of November run by the Parishes of New Plymouth. Please accept this as a personal invitation to commit to these two days, You will be fed with excellent speakers, and an enormous amount of food. There is a cost to attend this event. There is funding available we would love 8 people from our parishes and schools to attend. It will change your life for the better you will notice, and others will notice the change in you a change that can only be good for you and for all Jesus will be energized and so will you be. Contact Nicky or Fr Brian, or your school principal Rachael or April.

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS - Edward Sri

Discover the Beauty, the Riches, and the Profound Meaning of the Mass
The Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist.

The Words, the gestures, and the rituals of the Mass are rich in meaning. The Mass transcends time and space as it makes present to us the life, death, Resurrection, and Ascension of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ. Everything we say and do in the Liturgy is steeped in biblical language. A Biblical Walk Through the Mass explores the extraordinary biblical roots of the Liturgy and reveals what it all means and why it all matters. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

We are taking orders for this book if anyone is interested in ordering one. If you would like to order one, please let Nicky in the office know via email or text.
